

Laughter for Children's Sake...

an Evening of Comedy to Benefit Variety Child Learning Center

With the growing number of children with developmental disabilities on the rise, collaboration with our community, corporate sponsors, and friends is essential in enhancing programs to better assist our children's future. So please join us for another evening filled with laughter and comedy to promote VCLC's early education programs for young children with developmental disabilities and autism.

Let's have an evening of laughter for the children's sake!
